

VISION QUEST PHOTO WORKSHOPS

WHICH 'ZEN & THE ART OF PHOTOGRAPHY' WORKSHOP IS RIGHT FOR ME?

Breitenbush Hot Springs, Detroit, Oregon

- Workshop starts Sunday evening and end Friday at noon
- This is the most intense immersion into Zen concepts
- Beautiful retreat setting on a river in the mountains, surrounded by old growth cedar forests
- Soak in the numerous natural mineral hot springs or enjoy the geo-thermal sauna, hot tubs
- Massage and body work available. Daily free yoga or well being classes
- Great hiking going through old growth giant cedar forests, trails start right there
- No traveling once there. Park your car when you arrive and don't see it again until you leave!
- Beautiful scenic drive thru the mountains, only 2 hours Southeast from Portland, OR
- Not very expensive. Includes all meals and lodging. Excellent organic vegetarian food.
- This is the most relaxing workshop, due to the nature of the setting (class will still be intensive)
- A unique opportunity to be 'off the grid' without internet and cell phone service
- Breitenbush is one of Doug's favorite places anywhere to be and to teach!

Santa Fe Workshops, Santa Fe, New Mexico

- This is the most intensive photo workshop experience
- Plan on total immersion in your creative process
- Run by Santa Fe Workshops, the premier workshop center in the US. First rate staff.
- Santa Fe is an amazing and unique town, filled with art galleries and great restaurants
- Daily field trips to amazing places in the high desert and surrounding mountains
- Several other photo workshops held simultaneously, benefit from cross-pollination!
- Instructor slideshow presentations at night
- Camaraderie with students from other workshops
- Great lunch buffet included. Breakfast and lodging on campus optional

Maine Media Workshops, Rockport, Maine

- Located in beautiful Rockport, near Camden, on the rugged coast of Maine
- Maine Media Workshops is one of the oldest and most respected workshop centers in the US
- Several other photo workshops held simultaneously, benefit from cross-pollination!
- Instructor slideshow presentations at night
- Camaraderie with students from other workshops
- Many great nearby photo locations on the Maine coast
- Includes meals and on campus lodging options
- All-you-can-eat steak and lobster dinner on the last night!

Center for Photography at Woodstock, Woodstock, New York

- Saturday and Sunday weekend workshops to try a shorter version of this workshop
- Held in the beautiful, small historic village of Woodstock
- Center For Photography also houses a photo gallery and library
- Some excellent nearby galleries and many restaurants all within walking distance
- Only about a 2 hour drive from NYC
- Includes lunches

VISION QUEST PHOTO WORKSHOPS

Esalen Retreat Center, Big Sur, California

- Beautiful and dramatic natural setting on the Big Sur coast
- World-renowned retreat center only a couple hours south of San Francisco
- Soak in the amazing hot springs, set into the cliffs overlooking the Pacific Ocean
- Massage and body work available
- No traveling once there. Park your car when you arrive and don't see it again until you leave!
- Extremely progressive and relaxing atmosphere (class will still be intenseive)
- Includes wonderful organic meals with meat or vegetarian options, and lodging
- Internet available daily after meals in the lodge
- There is a daily beer and wine happy hour!

New York Open Center, New York City, New York

- An overview, giving a taste of the longer Zen workshops
- One to two days on a weekend, very affordable
- Held in lower Midtown Manhattan, close to Chelsea, Soho and Greenwich Village
- New York Open Center has a great bookstore and a nice, small coffee shop on the lobby
- Close to many of the best photo galleries and museums in the country!

